

Hi George

Gilbert Martin was a man that was not afraid to ask a difficult questions. He was a leader in his own rights. The most difficult question is Why or Why not. Gilbert Martin ask all the questions and more. Mr. Martin will surely be missed. His books will live on. I'm proud to have meet him in May 2004.

Nolan L. Melonson -Vice President of the International Organization of Creole People

Please past this on to his son.