As a member of the Giron family (now) from Alexandria, LA, I am proud and happy to have found this site. After years of being told by white creoles that I am not "really" Creole (and years of getting into arguments with them), this site is the beginning of true vindication, and the beginning of the whole truth being told. Thank You for making this information available to many.

Enjoy your website...I am a descendant of Prosper and Mary Hertzog Normand. Also Ray and Eulalia Linscomb Alston of Avoyelles and Rapides Parish, Louisiana. Keep up the excellent work.

Im not of creole descent but my fiance and his family is. They are teaching me alot about their family heritage and I wanted to learn more about the creole heritage on my own and I came across this website. It's very beneficial and has been a big help to me in learning more about my future husbands background.
